

Pilgrimage – Music & Words

Saturday 1 December – 3.00 pm

St Peter & St Paul's Church, Charing, TN27 0LP

A free concert expressing pilgrimage, past and present, in music and words

- Acapella singing by the CLScholars
- Words read by Charing residents

Followed by refreshments in the Church Barn accompanied by the 'Pilgrim Pipers'

Because of the limited seating, entrance is by ticket only.

Free tickets available from Keith Adams on 01233 712280 or email keith@charingpalace.org

This concert is presented by Charing Palace Trust in collaboration with Kent Downs AONB Unit to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the opening of the North Downs Way. The trail, which links Farnham in Surrey with Canterbury and Dover, follows the ancient Pilgrims Way between Winchester and Canterbury and gives Charing its special place in the long tradition of pilgrimage.
