

Commemorating D-Day

During this week, when the world remembers, Charing Parish Council pays tribute to those who fought and those who lost their lives during the D-day landings and the battles through Normandy that followed. In memory of their sacrifice, we will be lighting beacons on Thursday 6th June in the Sundial Garden beside Clewards Meadow and Charing Heath Memorial Hall at 9:15pm. Residents are invited to join us in this act of remembrance.
