

D-Day

During the week when the world remembered, Charing Parish council paid tribute to those who fought and those who lost their lives during the D-Day landings and the battles through Normandy that followed. In memory of their sacrifice, we joined with others, across the country, in lighting a beacon in tribute.